

Housing and Living Expenses

- i. Student dormitories are allocated by availability and duration of stay. Dormitory fees are to be paid in the fall and spring semesters. Dormitory fees for the 2017-2018 academic year are listed on the website of the Office of Student Affairs, Student Housing Section (<http://www.shs.fcu.edu.tw>).
- ii. Dormitory rooms have slightly different rates that are set in accordance with available facilities and the size of the room; rooms are assigned by the Student Housing Section.
- iii. A security deposit (NT$1,500 per semester) and management fees (between NT$2,700 and NT$3,000 per semester) must be paid when checking in at the dormitory service desk. Dormitory fee invoices will be sent to students after classes begin and must be paid at the Cathay United Bank, located on the first floor of FCU's Second Administration Building.
- iv. Students should plan on living in the dormitory for the full academic year. During the accommodation period, refunds will not be provided. In accordance with FCU's tuition and incidental fee regulations, refunds will only be granted for leave of absences, withdrawals, suspensions, transfers, and for those suffering from an infectious disease. Dormitory fees for all other students who leave the dormitory during the academic year will not be refunded. Students who do not live in the dormitory for one academic year must make up the dormitory fee balance as prescribed in the student dormitory fee list. For more information, please visit the website of the Office of Student Affairs, Student Housing Section.
- v.

In addition to tuition fees and housing costs, cost of living expenses are estimated to be around US$1,400 to US$1,800 per semester. Book expenses vary from course to course. The cost for books is expected to be around US$200 to US$300 per semester.